

REPORT OF VISIT OF LIEUTENANT CHURCHILL, WHO CAME FROM POLICE HEAD-QUARTERS OF JERSEY CITY, ON CHARLES S. WILSON, 839 MONTGOMERY STREET, HERSEY CITY.

On Tuesday, October 26, 1926, I was called on the telephone at seven o'clock in the evening by a man representing himself as being Lieutenant Churchill from Alexander Simpson's office who requested an interview, which was granted and set to be at eight thirty on that evening.

At eight thirty Lieutenant Churchill called on me and represented that he was from Police Headquarters of Jersey City and sent here by Alexander Simpson.

The inquiry began by Churchill stating that he understood that I had spent the summer of 1922 in Lavalette, N. J., and stated, of course, I knew Henry Stevens. Not knowing what he was leading up to, I made no answer one way or the other.

He continued his conversation by stating that he was investigating all kinds of information regarding the case and that he had my name as being one who knew the whereabouts of Henry Stevens on September 14, 1922. To this I made the comment that it seemed strange that he should be seeking information as to Henry Stevens' whereabouts at this time when they had Henry Stevens in jail and that it would seem to me that he should have been seeking such information before they had taken action. He stated that he was trying to get information which would be favorable for either the state or for Henry Stevens and that he was seeking
